

May 18, 2024
9 a.m. – 2 p.m.

WHAT IS CAMP COCOON?

- A safe and fun-filled one-day camp.
- A place for children ages 5-14 who have experienced the heartache of a loved one's death.
- A setting where children can be surrounded by love, compassion, and understanding.
- A time set aside for children to enjoy "kid-focused" activities while allowing them to talk about their loss.

Camp Cocoon of Blue Ridge will be held at the Fannin County Middle School.

Please contact Amy Beavers or Morgan Thomas at (706) 632-0027.

Camp Cocoon provides healing through play and activity.

Most important of all, Camp Cocoon is fun!

SIGN UP NOW – SPACE IS LIMITED

For more information, please contact
PruittHealth Hospice, Blue Ridge at (706) 632-0027 or PruittCaresFoundation@PruittHealth.com